NEW NEVADA NATIONAL SECURITY SITE FIRE & RESCUE CHIEF NAMED

LAS VEGAS – National Security Technologies, LLC, the management and operating contractor for the Nevada National Security Site (NNSS), recently named John M. Gamby Jr. the new NNSS fire chief. Chief Gamby comes from within the ranks, a 36-year veteran, of the NNSS Fire & Rescue Department. He was chosen to fill the vacancy left following the retirement of NNSS Fire Chief G. Chuck Fauerbach.

Chief Gamby began his career as a firefighter in the United States Air Force. In 1980, he joined the Site's Fire & Rescue Department as a firefighter. Over the past 36 years as a member of NNSS Fire & Rescue, Chief Gamby has worked his way from firefighter to Assistant Fire Chief, then to Deputy Fire Chief in 2001. In that position, he was responsible for supervision of firefighters and paramedics, ensuring compliance with standards and maintaining response readiness.

As Chief, he will maintain overall responsibility for the NNSS Fire & Rescue Department which services 1,360 square miles, managing senior staff, fire prevention staff, 21 paramedics, 39 firefighters, 23 vehicles and two stations. NNSS Fire & Rescue also provides mutual aid to neighboring communities in Pahrump, Beatty and Armagosa Valley, as well as Creech Air Force Base.
